

St. Peter's Church, Swettenham

FAMILY COMMUNION FOR HARVEST FESTIVAL

21ST SEPTEMBER 2014

A very warm welcome to the community here at St. Peter's where worship has been offered on this site since Saxon times. The present Church building has its origins in the late 13th Century and has been the place of worship for the village of Swettenham since then.

All stand to sing THE ENTRANCE HYMN: We plough the fields and scatter

1 We plough the fields with tractors,
with drills we sow the land;
but growth is still the wondrous gift
of God's almighty hand.

We add our fertilisers
to help the growing grain;
but for its full fruition,
it needs God's sun and rain.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above,
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
for all his love.*

2 With many new machines now
we do the work each day;
we reap the fields with combines,
we bale the new mown hay.

But still it's God who gives us
inventive skill and drives which lighten labour's drudgery
and gives us better lives.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above,
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
for all his love.*

3 He only is the maker
of galaxies and stars;
of birds and beasts and flowers,
and any life on Mars.

Atomic power obeys him,
yet still the birds are fed;
by him our prayers are answered;
give us our daily bread.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above,
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
for all his love.*

4 We thank the then O Father,
for life so rich and good,
for seedtime and the harvest,
the wealth of daily food.

No gifts have we to offer
such as thy love imparts,
but what thou most desirest:
our humble, thankful hearts.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above,
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord
for all his love.*

All remain standing for THE GREETING:

President In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The President introduces the service and invites us to reflect on the world and to say sorry for our failure to care for it as we should, saying together THE CONFESSIOIN:

President: We confess to you our lack of care for the world you have given us.
Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

President: We confess to you our selfishness in not sharing the earth's bounty fairly.
Christ, have mercy.

All Christ, have mercy.

President We confess to you our failure to protect resources for others. Lord, have mercy.

All Lord, have mercy.

President Almighty God, forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

All remain standing for THE COLLECT

President Let us pray.

All Almighty God, Father of all mercies; you have blessed the works of our hands and have given us the abundance of fruits of the earth. We humbly give you thanks for providing us with the bread of life to nourish our bodies and souls; and give us grace so to share the same with those in need, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All stand for THE GRADUAL HYMN: 288 Praise, O praise our God and King during which the children bring forward their harvest gifts.

All remain standing for THE GOSPEL READING John 6.25-35

When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you.'

For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat." 'Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which* comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.' Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

President As the grain once scattered in the fields and the grapes once dispersed on the hillside are now reunited on this table in bread and wine, so, Lord, may your whole Church soon be gathered together from the corners of the earth into your kingdom. Amen

All kneel for THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

President The Lord be with you

All And also with you

President Lift up your hearts

All We lift them to the Lord

President Let us give thanks to the Lord

All It is meet and right so to do

President Father, you made the world and love your creation. You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour. His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death. And so we gladly thank you, with saints and angels raising you, and saying:

All Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

President We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and Wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you. He broke the bread, gave it to them and said: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine. Again he praised you, gave it to them and said: Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with Confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross. Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory. Great is the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

President Lord of all life help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth. Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with Peter, Luke and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever.
Amen.

All remain kneeling for THE LORD'S PRAYER

President As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

President We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

President Christ is the bread which has come down from heaven.

All Lord, give us this bread for ever.

Those who do not wish to receive communion or who do not normally receive it are invited to come for a blessing. All kneel or sit for the PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION
